INTRODUCTION

VERSE

I'm an

Out-cast, I have left be - hind my mother, my sweetheart, and friends who kind. I can't were so

Rest my head, I'm hounded night and day .

CHORUS

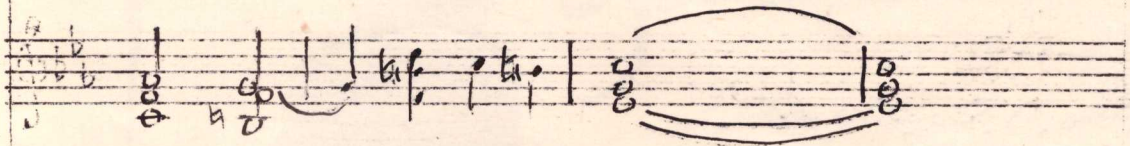

When will a dawn for storm clouds When at new world me and roll a-way? you're Home tonight, then pray you'll never be wandering

HOMELESS HOMELESS like me . Sheep gather

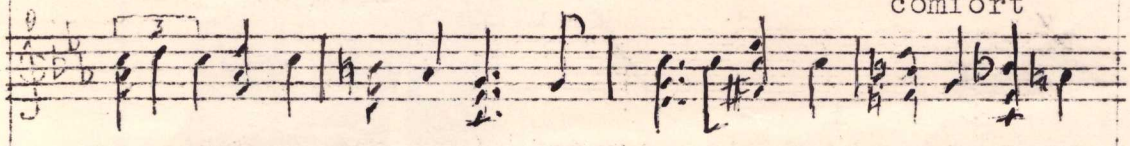

In the fold, and sparrows on the tree, they are not HOMELESS, HOMELESS like me .

You've got a roof a- bove your head, warmth and too comfort

It may not all you wish, still it's you. Round be quite but home for you are

Those you love, but who will be my friend must I go

HOMELESS? HOMELESS to the E N D ?
