

Dear parents, (1) Sept Oct. 2nd I'm glad indeed I got today your letter & postcard (223). The first one that arrived was 4. I start numerating my cards, now. I'm glad yours ~~is~~ came at all. It gives you a funny feeling, writing & writing & it never arrives. Let's hope things are improving now.
Everything you write, sit all right - but why aren't you looking well? Don't worry, I pray you. It's useless. We'll get out of all this one day & things will be better then. - ~~It's to me:~~ By the way: shall a sentence was delineated in your letter (something about Val). Did you do it? - ~~It's to me:~~ It's to me: I spoke to Prof. Clairmont, & he wants to take me to the clinic, beg on the 4 Nov 1st.
It's not sure the police will agree, but it's likely. I've already made a request, which he recommended. Probably I'll get ~~that~~ free board. I didn't say anything about this point, but it's very likely J. C. will arrange this himself, he spoke to someone about it.
I'm not making plans, it's useless so long you don't ~~know~~ exactly what's going to happen!

I'm glad I've won the race, shall be able to finish. This means to her now.

I'm very lucky to be in Switzerland & therefore to be able to wait & see. Don't worry about me, I'm all right in any case. I'm learning surgery & enjoying it need not hurry. You don't know it, but from the first day I made up my mind to come here I was fighting to win the race with war-injured Swiss. I should be in from the beginning.
